

CHILI LIME CHICKEN TORTILLA SOUP

Base yield: 12 portions | Cup: ~8 oz. | Bowl: ~14 oz. | Scale by multiplying all quantities by desired batch factor

Bold chili lime heat layered into a rich, ready-to-finish tortilla soup base, loaded with tender pulled rotisserie chicken and, on the table, in under 25 minutes.

Ingredients:

- 1 gal. Brickman's Chicken Tortilla Soup #217801
- 3 lbs. Gordon Choice Pulled Rotisserie Chicken #441374
- 2 Tbsp. Trade East Chili Lime Seasoning #492596

Assembly Instructions:

1. Heat the soup base: Pour Brickman's Chicken Tortilla Soup (#217801) into a large stockpot or steam-jacketed kettle. Bring to a gentle simmer over medium heat, stirring occasionally. Do not boil.
2. Season the broth: Stir in Trade East Chili Lime Seasoning (#492596). Start with 2 Tbsp., taste, and adjust as needed. The tortilla soup base carries its own seasoning, so add incrementally to avoid over-salting.
3. Add the chicken: Fold in Gordon Choice Pulled Rotisserie Chicken (#441374) directly from packaging. Stir gently to distribute throughout the broth. Simmer 8 - 10 minutes until the chicken is fully heated through and has absorbed the seasoned broth.
4. Final taste and adjust: Check seasoning one final time. If the soup has thickened beyond your target consistency during the simmer, thin with a small amount of water or chicken stock.
5. Portion and serve: Ladle into cups (8 oz.) or bowls (14 oz.). Serve immediately or hold in a steam table above 140°F.
