

BANGKOK STREET QUINOA SALAD

Crisp vegetables and roasted peanuts deliver freshness, texture, and crunch in this Bangkok Street Quinoa Salad, layered over Sandridge's fully cooked Tri-Colored Quinoa. Shredded carrot, red cabbage, sliced scallion, and fresh cilantro come together with a bold Thai dressing for a dish that eats like a street cart favorite. It's a globally inspired, high-margin menu item that travels well for catering, holds its texture through service, and taps directly into the demand for bold Southeast Asian flavor.
